

Euthanasia in the Netherlands: geographical variation

14 January 2021

British Medical Journal Supportive & Palliative Care, january 2021

The Dutch researchers Groenewoud and Boer publish data in the BMJ showing that there is a geographical variation in the number of new euthanasia cases among various postal code areas.