Reaction of FEAMC president

I am very sorry for the death of bishop Valentin Pozaic. I had the privilege of knowing him as an assistant of the FEAMC: prepared, cordial, mild, clear, faithful to the Magisterium of the Church and the Pope. He faced the disease with courage and determination, hope and trust. His death touches my heart deeply.

I ask you to pray for him so that the Lord welcomes him into his arms, just as his life deserves. I embrace all the friends of Croatia and I am present with them in prayer.
